

2007 Australian Sports Awards: Nominees Announced

Wheelchair Sports Australia is pleased to announce that its members have received three nominations in this year's Australian Sports Awards and would like to take this opportunity to congratulate those nominees. They are as follows:

Sportsperson of the Year with a Disability

Kurt Fearnley - Wheelchair Road Racing (Wheelchair Sports NSW)

Darryl Hoyle - Water skiing (Sporting Wheelies and Disabled Association)

Sport Executive of the Year

Ray Epstein (Sporting Wheelies and Disabled Association)

The Australian Sports Awards have been part of Australia's sporting landscape for 28 years and they recognise and celebrate excellence across all sports and all areas of the sport sector. We wish our nominees the very best for the final awards.

This year's Awards will be announced via www.sbs.com.au and www.australiansportawards.com through an online video multimedia experience. This is an exciting initiative has the potential to bring the 2007 Australian Sport Awards to an even larger audience. The Award nominations will go live on 7 February with the winners announced on Wednesday 20 February.
